

Review at Scale, Without Slowing Down Business

Smartcat AI Reviewer Agents automatically review translation quality, compliance, terminology, and brand alignment, and continuously learn from your subject matter experts. Your experts stay in control, while the system gets smarter with every decision.

Review Slows Growth

As content volume increases, review becomes the limiting factor. Every asset still needs human validation. Coordination takes time. Manual checks pile up. Attention gets stretched thin.

- Review cycles global delay launches
- SMEs spend time on repetitive checks
- Administrative coordination drains productivity
- Risk increases when reviewers are overloaded
- Scaling content means scaling review effort

The result: slower execution and underutilized expertise.

AI That Makes Expert Time Count

Smartcat AI Review Agents pre-review your content, flag what truly requires human judgment, and learn from expert feedback over time. Review becomes focused, faster, and far more strategic.

- Automatically pre-check content before it reaches your SME
- Surface only high-impact issues that require expert input
- Reduce review cycles and back-and-forth
- Learn from SME edits and enterprise standards
- Scale quality control without scaling headcount

Subject matter experts can be up to 10x more effective in review workflows, focusing on decisions that drive impact, not repetitive checks.
